

Precision Optics Fabrication Supervisor

Applicant must have a minimum of 5 years hands-on experience in manufacturing of precision optics. This position requires experience in fabrication, lapping, polishing and metrology. Tower Optical is growing and is creating this new position.

Tower Optical Corporation is a premier manufacturer and distributor of high quality precision optics and assemblies. Tower's stock and "build to print" custom products are used in leading-edge photonics technology, electro-optics, lasers, telecommunications, medical instruments, optical imaging, machine vision and optical computing. Products include Crystal Quartz Waveplates, Achromatic Waveplates, lenses, filters, polarizer's, prisms, beam splitters, windows, mirrors and optical flats.

Tower customers represent a broad variety of companies and industries including military, aircraft, aerospace, medical, industrial, university researchers and key U.S. Department of Defense contractors. Tower is ISO 9001:2015 registered. ITAR Compliant and is a SDVOSB.

Please visit our web site at www.TowerOptical.com